

DiSabato and Silver Knight in the lawsuit styled as Globex International, Inc. v. Michael DiSabato, et al., Case No. 3:05-cv-1814-N, pending in the United States District Court for the Northern District of Texas.

Subsequently, in September 2009, Plaintiff learned that the scheme devised to defraud Globex out of recovering on its judgment involved a number of other parties, including Jerry Peer and the firm of Adams, Babner & Gitlitz, counsel for Defendants MMA Authentics, Patricia DiSabato, Michael DiSabato, and Silver Knight; Richard Kruse, Melissa Kruse, and Gryphon Asset Management, the receiver requested by Silver Knight and appointed to take control of Silver Knight in its Ohio state court receivership proceeding; and Steven E. Miller and Crabbe, Brown & James, LLP, the counsel requested by Silver Knight and appointed to represent the receiver in Silver Knight's Ohio state court receivership proceeding. Specifically, these above-referenced parties conspired to create and did create a sham to perpetrate fraud against Plaintiff Globex and did so through the Ohio state court receivership proceeding in an attempt to cloak their fraudulent activities in a judicial robe. Additionally, Plaintiff believes that Huntington Bank had actual or constructive awareness of Globex's pre-existing claims against Silver Knight when Silver Knight transferred a security interest in its inventory to Huntington National Bank. As such, Huntington National Bank was not an innocent, good faith transferee of the security interest, and the transfer from Silver Knight to Huntington National Bank should be voided.

Amendment of Plaintiff's pleadings is necessary for the following reasons: 1) to name new parties that were discovered in or about September 2009; 2) to articulate new theories of recovery, which are based both on facts already pleaded and on new facts uncovered in September 2009; 2) to provide a more clear and more definite statement of the causes of action being pled and the requisite elements for those causes of action; and 3) to ensure that all defendants have fair notice of all assertions being made against them.

II. ARGUMENT AND AUTHORITIES

“Rule 15(a) declares that leave to amend ‘shall be freely given when justice so requires’; this mandate is to be heeded.” Foman v. Davis, 371 U.S. 178, 182 (1962); see also FED. R. CIV. P. 15(a)(2); Lyn-Lea Travel Corp. v. Am. Airlines, Inc., 283 F.3d 282, 286 (5th Cir. 2002) (“Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 15(a) requires the trial court to grant leave to amend ‘freely,’ and the language of this rule ‘evinces a bias in favor of granting leave to amend.’”); Williams v. United States, 405 F.2d 234, 236 (5th Cir. 1968) (“Of course, we are committed to the proposition that leave to amend should be given freely when justice requires.”). While appellate courts “review denial of leave to amend for abuse of discretion[,]” such “discretion” is misleading in the context of motions to amend because the Federal Rules clearly evince “a bias in favor of granting leave to amend.” Martin’s Herend Imports, Inc. v. Diamond & Gem Trading United States of America Co., 195 F.3d 765, 770 (5th Cir. 1999).

Absent circumstances where granting leave to amend will cause an undue delay in the proceedings or where there is bad faith or dilatory motive on the part of the movant, repeated failure to cure deficiencies by amendments previously allowed, undue prejudice to the opposing party by virtue of allowance of an amendment, or such amendment would be futile, leave to amend “should be freely given.” Foman, 371 U.S. at 182; see also United States ex rel. Adrian v. Regents of Univ. of Cal., 363 F.3d 398, 403 (5th Cir. 2004); see also Rosenzweig v. Azurix Corp., 332 F.3d 854, 864 (5th Cir. 2003). As set forth below, none of these factors exist in this case, and as such, the Court should grant Plaintiff Globex’s motion for leave to amend.

Plaintiff's motion is brought in good faith so as to ensure its claims are stated as clearly as possible and with as much factual detail as is required under the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure and to ensure that all defendants are on notice of the claims being asserted against them. Plaintiff has only amended its pleadings on one prior occasion and has not failed to cure any deficiencies brought to Plaintiff's attention.

Granting leave to amend Plaintiff's pleadings will not cause any party prejudice. First, the deadline to amend pleadings set forth by this Court has not yet passed. Second, trial in this matter has not even been set. Third, the discovery period does not end for over eight months. Furthermore, Defendants have yet to serve any discovery on Plaintiff. Thus, the amended pleading will not set back any defendant's defense of this matter.

Finally, this amendment will not be futile, as it will serve as to more clearly delineate claims already made and ensure that these claims meet the pleading requirements of the Federal Rules. Additionally, it will add in additional Defendants and assert additional viable claims, the existence of which were not known to Plaintiff until September 2009.

Where an amendment does not "fundamentally alter the nature of the case[.]" leave to amend should be freely given. Mayeau v. La. Health Serv. & Indem. Co., 376 F.3d 420 (5th Cir. 2004). Even amendments that do alter the nature of the case should be granted, however, when fairness warrants. See id. With no trial date set and minimal discovery having been conducted, Plaintiff Globex's motion for leave to amend should be granted, both in the interest of justice and to promote the spirit evinced in the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure.

III. CONCLUSION

Plaintiff Globex brings this Motion for Leave to Amend Plaintiff's First Amended Complaint in good faith. Plaintiff has not repeatedly failed to cure any deficiencies in its pleadings, an amendment to the pleadings will not prejudice any party, and this amendment will not be futile. For these reasons, Plaintiff respectfully moves this Court to GRANT this Motion for Leave to Amend and to also GRANT Plaintiff such other and further relief to which he may be entitled at law or in equity.

Respectfully submitted this 25th day of September, 2009,

II. JURISDICTION

16. Plaintiff hereby incorporates Paragraphs 1-16 and 30-97 as if fully set forth herein.

17. The Court has jurisdiction over the lawsuit under 28 U.S.C. § 1332(a)(1) because the Plaintiff and Defendants are citizens of different states and the amount in controversy exceeds $75,000.00, excluding interest and costs.

18. The Court has personal jurisdiction over Defendants pursuant to Texas Civil Practice and Remedies Code § 17.042. Defendants have performed acts constituting business in this state.

19. Defendant MMA Authentics has carried out acts constituting business in the State of Texas, has committed torts in whole or in part in the State of Texas, either on its own or through an agent, and/or has engaged in substantial and not isolated activity in the State of Texas. Plaintiff's claims against MMA Authentics arose from its carrying out acts constituting business in the State of Texas, its commission of torts in whole or in part in the State of Texas, either on its own or through an agent, and/or its substantial and not isolated activity in the State of Texas. MMA Authentics established minimum contacts with the State of Texas by purposefully availing itself of the privilege of conducting activities in-state, thereby invoking the benefits and protection of Texas law. Furthermore, the conduct of MMA Authentics is such that it should reasonably anticipate being haled into Court in the State of Texas.

20. Defendant Patricia DiSabato has carried out acts constituting business in the State of Texas, has committed torts in whole or in part in the State of Texas, and/or has engaged in substantial and not isolated activity in the State of Texas. Patricia DiSabato established minimum contacts with the State of Texas by purposefully availing herself of the privilege of conducting activities in-state, thereby invoking the benefits and protection of Texas law. Furthermore, the conduct of Defendant Patricia DiSabato is such that she should reasonably anticipate being haled into Court in the State of Texas.

21. Defendant Michael DiSabato has carried out acts constituting business in the State of Texas, has committed torts in whole or in part in the State of Texas, and/or has engaged in substantial and not isolated activity in the State of Texas. Plaintiff's claims against Defendant Michael DiSabato arose from his carrying out acts constituting business in the State of Texas or from his commissions of torts in whole or in part in the State of Texas. DiSabato established minimum contacts with the State of Texas by purposefully availing himself of the privilege of conducting activities in-state, thereby invoking the benefits and protection of Texas law. Furthermore, the conduct of Defendant Michael DiSabato is such that he should reasonably anticipate being haled into Court in the State of Texas. In a related lawsuit styled Globex International, Inc. v. Michael DiSabato and Silver Knight Sales & Marketing, Ltd., Cause No. 3:05-cv-1814-N, pending in the United States District Court for the Northern District of Texas, Dallas Division, Defendant Michael DiSabato was already held to be subject to personal jurisdiction of this Court. See Cause No. 3:05-cv-1814-N, at Doc. Nos. 11, 21.

22. Defendant Silver Knight has carried out acts constituting business in the State of Texas, has committed torts in whole or in part in the State of Texas, and/or has engaged in substantial and not isolated activity in the State of Texas. Plaintiff's claims against Defendant Silver Knight arose from its carrying out acts constituting business in the State of Texas or from its commissions of torts in whole or in part in the State of Texas. Silver Knight established minimum contacts with the State of Texas by purposefully availing itself of the privilege of conducting activities in-state, thereby invoking the benefits and protection of Texas law.

Furthermore, the conduct of Defendant Silver Knight is such that it should reasonably anticipate being haled into Court in the State of Texas. In a related lawsuit styled Globex International, Inc. v. Michael DiSabato and Silver Knight Sales & Marketing, Ltd., Cause No. 3:05-cv-1814-N, pending in the United States District Court for the Northern District of Texas, Dallas Division, Defendant Silver Knight was already held to be subject to personal jurisdiction of this Court.

23. Defendants Jerry Peer and Adams, Babner, & Gitlitz have carried out acts constituting business in the State of Texas, have committed torts in whole or in part in the State of Texas, and/or have engaged in substantial and not isolated activity in the State of Texas. Plaintiff's claims against Defendants Jerry Peer and Adams, Babner, and Gitlitz arose from their carrying out acts constituting business in the State of Texas or from their commissions of torts in whole or in part in the State of Texas. Jerry Peer and Adams, Babner, and Gitlitz established minimum contacts with the State of Texas by purposefully availing themselves of the privilege of conducting activities in-state, thereby invoking the benefits and protection of Texas law. Defendants Jerry Peer and Adams, Babner, and Gitlitz are operating as agents of Michael DiSabato in the carrying on of business activities in the State of Texas and in the commission of torts in whole or in part in the State of Texas. Furthermore, the conduct of Defendants Jerry Peer and Adams, Babner, and Gitlitz is such that it should reasonably anticipate being haled into Court in the State of Texas.

24. Defendants Gryphon Asset Management, Richard Kruse, and Melissa Kruse have carried out acts constituting business in the State of Texas, have committed torts in whole or in part in the State of Texas, and/or have engaged in substantial and not isolated activity in the State of Texas. Plaintiff's claims against Defendants Gryphon Asset Management, Richard Kruse, and Melissa Kruse arose from their carrying out acts constituting business in the State of Texas or from their commissions of torts in whole or in part in the State of Texas. Gryphon Asset Management, Richard Kruse, and Melissa Kruse established minimum contacts with the State of Texas by purposefully availing themselves of the privilege of conducting activities in-state, thereby invoking the benefits and protection of Texas law. Defendants J Gryphon Asset Management, Richard Kruse, and Melissa Kruse are operating as agents of Michael DiSabato, Jerry Peer, Adams, Babner & Gitlitz, Steven E. Miller, and/or Crabbe, Brown & James in the carrying on of business activities in the State of Texas and in the commission of torts in whole or in part in the State of Texas. Furthermore, the conduct of Defendants Gryphon Asset Management, Richard Kruse, and Melissa Kruse is such that it should reasonably anticipate being haled into Court in the State of Texas.

25. Defendants Steven E. Miller and Crabbe, Brown & James have carried out acts constituting business in the State of Texas, have committed torts in whole or in part in the State of Texas, and/or have engaged in substantial and not isolated activity in the State of Texas. Plaintiff's claims against Defendants Steven E. Miller and Crabbe, Brown & James arose from their carrying out acts constituting business in the State of Texas or from their commissions of torts in whole or in part in the State of Texas. Steven E. Miller and Crabbe, Brown & James established minimum contacts with the State of Texas by purposefully availing themselves of the privilege of conducting activities in-state, thereby invoking the benefits and protection of Texas law. Defendants Steven E. Miller and Crabbe, Brown & James are operating as agents of Michael DiSabato, Jerry Peer, Adams, Babner & Gitlitz, Gryphon Asset Management, Richard Kruse, and/or Melissa Kruse in the carrying on of business activities in the State of Texas and in the commission of torts in whole or in part in the State of Texas. Furthermore, the conduct of Defendants Steven E. Miller and Crabbe, Brown & James is such that it should reasonably anticipate being haled into Court in the State of Texas.

26. Huntington National Bank has carried out acts constituting business in the State of Texas, has committed torts in whole or in part in the State of Texas, and/or has engaged in substantial and not isolated activity in the State of Texas. Plaintiff's claims against Defendant Huntington National Bank arose from its carrying out acts constituting business in the State of Texas or from its commissions of torts in whole or in part in the State of Texas. Huntington National Bank established minimum contacts with the State of Texas by purposefully availing itself of the privilege of conducting activities in-state, thereby invoking the benefits and protection of Texas law. Furthermore, the conduct of Defendant Huntington National Bank is such that it should reasonably anticipate being haled into Court in the State of Texas.

27. MMA Authentics is the alter ego of Silver Knight and/or Michael DiSabato. MMA Authentics was not adequately capitalized; MMA Authentics and Silver Knight had significant overlap in ownership, officers, directors, and or personnel; MMA Authentics and Silver Knight shared common office space, address, telephone numbers, and warehouse space; MMA Authentics and Silver Knight did not deal "at arm's-length" with each other; Silver Knight paid expenses for MMA Authentics, including the salaries of MMA Authentics' employees; and together, with the help of additional parties as described herein, Silver Knight and MMA Authentics perpetrated fraud, wrongdoing, and/or injustice on Plaintiff.

28. Patricia DiSabato is the alter ego of Michael DiSabato, and is being utilized as his agent and nominee to be the "paper owner" of MMA Authentics and of other assets of Michael DiSabato, when in reality MMA Authentics is wholly owned and controlled by Michael DiSabato. No arms-length relationship exists between Michael DiSabato and Patricia DiSabato because they are husband and wife. Patricia DiSabato is being utilized as the alter ego of Michael DiSabato with the intent of defrauding, hindering, and/or delaying Globex as a creditor. Patricia DiSabato is acting as the agent of Michael DiSabato in the commission of torts in whole or in part in the State of Texas.

III. VENUE

29. Venue is proper in this district under 28 U.S.C. § 1391(a)(2) because a substantial part of the events or omissions giving rise to this claim occurred in this district. In a related lawsuit styled Globex International, Inc. v. Michael DiSabato and Silver Knight Sales & Marketing, Ltd., Cause No. 3:05-cv-1814-N, pending in the United States District Court for the Northern District of Texas, Dallas Division, a seven-member jury found Defendants Michael DiSabato and Silver Knight liable for claims of breach of partnership agreement, breach of fiduciary duty, and fraud and awarded Plaintiff damages resulting in a judgment of $5.3 million. Plaintiff's claims in that litigation were based, in part, on claims that Defendants Michael DiSabato and Silver Knight had misappropriated assets of the Silver Knight/Globex partnership, which were in turn transferred to Defendants MMA Authentics and Patricia DiSabato. All of the claims in this lawsuit arise from the Defendants' unlawful actions and conspiracy to evade, hinder, and delay satisfaction of the judgment rendered in the United States District Court for the Northern District of Texas, Dallas Division, in Cause No. 3:05-cv-1814-N.

IV. FACTS

A. Globex Is Awarded $5.3 Million Judgment in the Underlying Lawsuit.

30. In September 2005, Globex filed suit against Michael DiSabato and Silver Knight alleging claims including breach of partnership agreement, breach of fiduciary duty, and fraud.

That case was styled Globex International, Inc. v. Michael DiSabato and Silver Knight Sales & Marketing, Ltd., Cause No. 3:05-cv-1814-N, In the United States District Court for the Northern District of Texas, Dallas Division (the “Underlying Lawsuit”).

31. Jury trial commenced in the Underlying Lawsuit on March 3, 2009, and on March 10, 2009, the seven-member jury returned a verdict in favor of Plaintiff Globex finding as follows:

- (a) Silver Knight breached its partnership agreement with Globex;
- (b) Silver Knight breached its fiduciary duty to Globex;
- (c) Michael DiSabato knowingly participated in Silver Knight’s breach of its fiduciary duty to Globex; and
- (d) Silver Knight and Michael DiSabato both committed fraud against Globex.

32. On May 1, 2009, Judgment was entered in the Underlying Lawsuit in favor of the Plaintiff Globex and against the Defendants in the aggregate amount of $5.3 million. See Judgment, attached as Exhibit 1.

B. MMA Authentics Is Created During the Pendency of the Underlying Lawsuit, with Michael DiSabato’s Wife as the President and Sole Owner, in Order to Defraud Globex as a Creditor.

33. Defendant Michael DiSabato gave his deposition in the Underlying Lawsuit in March of 2007. At the deposition, Michael DiSabato was presented with an extensive amount of indisputable evidence demonstrating his fraud against Globex and retired investor Dennis Thein.

34. Less than one month later, Michael DiSabato formed Defendant MMA Authentics. MMA Authentics is operated out of the same office as Silver Knight, in the same line of business, with the same employees, same accountants, same management and control, same address, same fax number, same phone number, same office equipment, and the same warehouse space where the inventory of Silver Knight and MMA Authentics is intermingled indistinguishably in the very same room. Silver Knight also paid MMA Authentics' payroll expenses.

35. The only difference between Silver Knight and MMA Authentics is that, while Michael DiSabato was the President and sole owner of Silver Knight, Michael DiSabato's wife, Defendant Patricia DiSabato, is the President and sole owner of MMA Authentics. Prior to being anointed as the sham President and sole owner of MMA Authentics, a cage fighting apparel and novelty company whose sales revenues Michael DiSabato claims will exceed $30 million in 2009, Patricia DiSabato had been a counselor for special needs children. More recently, according to Michael DiSabato's deposition testimony, Patricia DiSabato had acted in part-time janitorial capacity for Silver Knight. Not surprisingly, Michael DiSabato is the public face and person in control of MMA Authentics and is the person who signed the Articles of Organization for MMA Authentics.

36. According to recent post-judgment deposition testimony of Michael DiSabato, the MMA Authentics alter ego and sham to perpetrate a fraud against Globex was devised, executed, and advanced with the advice, aid, assistance, and counsel of a lawyer. Because Michael DiSabato purported not to know the name of the law firm and lawyer who conspired with Defendants to perpetrate this fraud, the law firm and lawyer have been named as John Doe Law Firm and John Doe Lawyer, respectively, until such time as the actual identity of said Defendants can be discovered.

C. Defendants Conspire To Use an Ohio State Court Receivership Proceeding To Perpetrate further Fraud against Globex and this United States District Court for the Northern District of Texas.

1. Defendants Obtain the Ex Parte Appointment of a Pre-selected Receiver for Silver Knight and then Attempt To Use the State Court Receivership to Obtain Dismissal of All Claims Against MMA Authentics, Patricia DiSabato and Michael DiSabato with Prejudice.

37. On March 20, 2009, four days after this lawsuit was filed, and one week after the jury rendered its verdict in the Underlying Lawsuit, Silver Knight filed a voluntary receivership in Ohio State Court, styled In Re: Dissolution of Silver Knight Sales & Marketing, Ltd., Case No. 09-MS-3-185, In the Court of Common Pleas, Franklin County, Ohio. See Verified Complaint for Judicial Dissolution and for Immediate Appointment of Receiver, attached as Exhibit 2. The receivership action was filed by counsel Defendant Jerry E. Peer of the law firm of Defendant Adams, Babner & Gitlitz, and the Complaint specifically requested the immediate appointment of Defendant Gryphon Asset Management, by and through its principal Defendant Richard Kruse, as the preselected Receiver and Defendant Steven E. Miller of Defendant Crabbe, Brown & James as the preselected counsel for Receiver. Without informing Plaintiff Globex, Silver Knight's largest creditor several times over, of this filing, Defendants then sought and obtained ex parte an order appointing Gryphon Asset Management, by and through its principal Richard Kruse, as the Receiver and Steven E. Miller of Defendant Crabbe, Brown & James as the Receiver's counsel. See Order Appointing Receiver, dated March 20, 2009, attached as Exhibit 3.

38. In spite of the fact that Silver Knight was a multimillion dollar company with extensive inventory and valuable national licenses, and in spite of the fact that Silver Knight owed Plaintiff Globex over $3.2 million, Defendants requested that the Receiver be required to post a bond of only $1.00. Id. The receivership court required that the Receiver post a bond of only $1.00. Id.

39. In direct contravention of the Order Appointing Receiver, no one ever informed Plaintiff Globex of the receivership. Id. Instead, Globex inadvertently learned of the receivership in a newspaper article. To this date, no formal notice of the receivership has ever been provided to Globex.

40. Nevertheless, after learning about the Silver Knight state court receivership in the newspaper, Globex filed its Sworn Notice and Proof of Claim on May 5, 2009 (“Notice of Claim”), attaching a copy of the Judgment rendered in the Underlying Case. See Notice of Claim, attached as Exhibit 4. The Notice of Claim explicitly contained the undersigned counsel’s contact information, as well as the contact information for Globex’s local counsel in Ohio, James C. Carpenter of Carpenter Lane, LLC, who appeared on behalf of Globex in the receivership case. Id.

41. The undersigned counsel also contacted Steve Miller on several occasions to discuss the nature of the Underlying Case, the jury’s fraud findings, and the Defendants’ history of fraudulent transfers and scams to defraud Globex as a judgment creditor. Steve Miller informed the undersigned counsel that the value of Silver Knight’s inventory exceeded $1 million. The undersigned counsel stressed the importance of the matter to Globex and voiced Globex’s concerns about the state court receivership proceeding given the Defendants’ prior misconduct.

42. On May 8, 2009, Defendants MMA Authentics, Patricia DiSabato, Michael DiSabato, and Silver Knight filed in this case a Motion to Dismiss Based on the Appointment of Receiver. See Doc. No. 12. That motion sought to dismiss all claims against all defendants with prejudice based upon the Ohio state court receivership, even though MMA Authentics, Patricia DiSabato, and Michael DiSabato were not parties to the Silver Knight receivership proceeding. Furthermore, the instant case was filed prior to the filing of the state court receivership proceeding. In their Motion to Dismiss Based upon the Appointment of Receiver, the Defendants were unable to cite a single federal case to support their motion. Plaintiff subsequently discovered that Steve Miller and Crabbe, Brown & James participated in the research and drafting of this Motion to Dismiss Based on the Appointment of Receiver, and that, based upon the billing records of said Defendants, they had specifically looked for federal case law to support the notion that a state court receivership court had jurisdiction to stay a federal in personam action. Not surprisingly, they were apparently unable to find a single case to support even a stay, much less a dismissal with prejudice, with respect to any Defendant and especially with respect to Defendants who were not even party to the receivership proceeding. See Motion of Receiver Gryphon Asset Management, LLC for approval of Expenses and Attorney's Fees, attached as Exhibit 5. Defendants filed the motion anyway.

43. The Ohio state court receivership is a procedural ploy devised by Defendants MMA Authentics, Silver Knight, Michael DiSabato, Patricia DiSabato, Jerry Peer, and Adams, Babner & Gitlitz, with which Defendants Gryphon Asset Management, Richard Kruse, Melissa Kruse, Steve Miller, and Crabbe, Brown & James assisted, encouraged, participated and/or conspired. The object of the Defendants' actions is to unlawfully defraud, hinder, and delay Globex as a judgment creditor by perpetrating a fraud on this Court.

2. Defendants Dispose of Silver Knight's Assets and Inventory without Providing Any Notice to Globex and Attempt to Conceal Evidence of Fraud from Globex and this Court.

44. Despite the fact that Globex filed a Notice of Claim in the state court receivership proceeding, Jerry Peer, Adams, Babner & Gitlitz, Gryphon Asset Management, Richard Kruse, Melissa Kruse, Steve Miller, and Crabbe, Brown & James have never provided Globex with any written notice regarding the receivership and have failed to serve Globex with a single one of the motions, documents, requests, or inventories filed with the receivership court. See e.g. Motion of Receiver Gryphon Asset Management, LLC for approval of Expenses and Attorney's Fees, at Certificate of Service, attached as Exhibit 5.

45. Rather than conduct the receivership as an instrument for the benefit of Silver Knight's creditors, Defendants have utilized the receivership as a mechanism to protect and unlawfully advance the interests of MMA Authentics, Patricia DiSabato, and Michael DiSabato, and to attempt to cloak their fraudulent schemes in a judicial robe.

46. Globex did not learn that the Receiver had taken any action, much less disposed of Silver Knight's assets, until Michael DiSabato's deposition at the Earle Cabell Federal Courthouse in Dallas, Texas on September 11, 2009, at which Mr. DiSabato's lawyer, Jerry Peer, inadvertently commented that the Receiver had been selling off Silver Knight's inventory.

47. When Globex's local counsel in Columbus, Ohio, Jim Carpenter, went to the receivership court directly to obtain copies of the motions and documents Defendants had filed in that case, the results were nothing short of astonishing.

48. Defendants had not once mentioned Globex by name in any filings with the receivership court. Defendants had failed to inform the receivership court that Silver Knight had a $3.2 million non-dischargeable judgment against it that contained findings of fraud. The only mention of Globex or its judgment in the entire file of the receivership court was in the Notice of Claim Globex filed in May of 2009.

3. Defendants' Actions Surrounding the Receivership Render Globex's $3.2 Million Judgment Against Silver Knight Completely Worthless.

49. The gross misconduct of Defendants MMA Authentics, Silver Knight, Michael DiSabato, Patricia DiSabato, Jerry Peer, Adams, Babner & Gitlitz, Gryphon Asset Management, Richard Kruse, Melissa Kruse, Steve Miller, and Crabbe, Brown & James in conspiring to manipulate the Ohio state court receivership proceeding for their own gain, have rendered the entirety of Globex's $3.2 million claim against Silver Knight completely worthless as a result of the following:

- (a) Silver Knight's inventory was being stored in the same room of the same warehouse as the inventory belonging to MMA Authentics. See First Report of Receiver, attached as Exhibit 6. Rather than take an actual inventory of all items in the room, the Receiver and its counsel simply took Michael DiSabato's word for what items belonged to Silver Knight, and even then only conducted a "spot check" of the inventory Michael DiSabato hand-picked. See Inventory of Silver Knight, attached as Exhibit 7. As a result of this abject failure to take an inventory of, or even attempt to secure, the entire contents of the warehouse room where Silver Knight and MMA Authentics comingled their inventory, Globex has been forever deprived of the ability to discover the extent of the fraudulent transfers of inventory and other assets from Silver Knight to MMA Authentics. Globex is further deprived of the possibility of ever discovering the extent to which Michael and Patricia DiSabato misappropriated Silver Knight inventory and sold it privately for their benefit, which they are known to have done in the past with inventory specifically misappropriated from Globex.

- (b) The Receiver sold the bulk of the Michael DiSabato hand-picked Silver Knight inventory, which the Receiver had previously stated to be worth over $1 million, for virtually nothing, without ever notifying Globex or making motion to the receivership court. See First Report of Receiver, attached as Exhibit 6.
- (c) The Receiver and its counsel then made motion to the Court to use the proceeds of the sales to pay the fees of the Receiver and its attorney. See Motion of Receiver Gryphon Asset Management, LLC for approval of Expenses and Attorney's Fees, attached as Exhibit 5.
- (d) In spite of the discrepancies between the inventory list provided by Michael DiSabato and Silver Knight to the Receiver and the actual inventory reviewed during the "spot check", the Receiver decided not to conduct any further investigation, even after having been compensated to do so. See Inventory of Silver Knight, attached as Exhibit 7.
- (e) The Receiver never made any attempt to determine the actual wholesale or retail value of Silver Knight's inventory prior to attempting to sell it. The Receiver never even attempted to determine what price Silver Knight had paid for the inventory the Receiver was dumping.
- (f) The inventory list provided by Silver Knight demonstrates that a large portion of the inventory that was turned over to the receivership estate was likely paid for, and was certainly developed, by Globex. As a result, Globex was in a better position than almost anyone to maximize the value of the inventory. Globex was not consulted and the inventory was disposed of without notice to Globex and without giving Globex the opportunity to participate in the process or even object to it.

- (g) Globex and this Court have been deprived of the ability to ever know exactly what inventory was actually turned over to the Receiver because the Receiver never disposed of the inventory before actually making an effort to indentify exactly what had been turned over.
- (h) The Receiver never made any attempt to investigate or consider the possibility that Silver Knight was not actually insolvent. In reality, Silver Knight did not need to be liquidated; its exclusive national licenses with the Collegiate Licensing Company continued to allow the company to generate multimillion dollar sales revenues on high margin products if the company was being run in good faith, as opposed to simply being gutted by Michael and Patricia DiSabato in order to defraud this Court and judgment creditor Globex. Other than the claim of Globex, the size of the claims of the other creditors were equal to or less than what one would expect to exist in the normal course of business for a company such as Silver Knight. The problem was not insolvency resulting from unsuccessful business operations—if that was the case, Silver Knight should have either had inventory or cash. Rather, the problem is that the Receiver now contends that Silver Knight had neither cash nor inventory of value, but the Receiver made no legitimate attempt to investigate this highly suspicious situation. The Receiver instead simply disposed of the evidence without notice to Globex or this Court.

4. The Billing Records of the Receiver and the Receiver's Counsel Contain Extensive Evidence of Defendants' Conspiracy to Commit Fraud.

50. Furthermore, a cursory review of the billing records submitted to the receivership court by the Receiver and its counsel uncovered evidence of the following:

- (a) The Receiver and its counsel were having almost daily “strategy calls” with Jerry Peer, who is, among other things, the attorney for Michael DiSabato, Patricia DiSabato, and MMA Authentics. See Motion of Receiver Gryphon Asset Management, LLC for approval of Expenses and Attorney’s Fees, attached as Exhibit 5.
- (b) Virtually all of the information regarding inventory was coming from Jerry Peer. Id.
- (c) Virtually all of the decisions regarding disposal of inventory were going through Jerry Peer. Id.
- (d) The Receiver and its counsel were involved in orchestrating “payment of MMA [Authentics] staff.” Id.
- (e) There was extensive correspondence between the Receiver and MMA Authentics employee Nina Fullerton. Id.
- (f) There are numerous references throughout the billings to the Receiver’s correspondence with “MMA” and “MMA Salespersons.” Id.
- (g) The Receiver and its counsel were involved in orchestrating preferential payments to GBQ Consulting, who was the expert jointly retained by Silver Knight and Michael DiSabato and who testified on their behalf at trial in the Underlying Case. Id.

- (h) Jerry Peer was involved in handling “creditor notices,” which presumably includes the one that was never sent to Globex. Id.
- (i) There are references to Silver Knight’s “use of MMA account, need for separate silver knight account,” and to the problem of “comingling of use.” Id.

V.
CAUSES OF ACTION

A. Alter Ego.

- 51. Plaintiff hereby incorporates the foregoing paragraphs as if fully set forth herein.
- 52. This claim applies to MMA Authentics, Silver Knight, Michael DiSabato, Patricia DiSabato, John Doe Lawyer, and John Doe Law Firm.
- 53. MMA Authentics is the alter ego of Silver Knight and Michael DiSabato.
- 54. MMA Authentics is operated out of the same office as Silver Knight, in the same line of business, with the same employees, same accountants, same management and control, same address, same fax number, same phone number, same office equipment, and the same warehouse space where the inventory of Silver Knight and MMA Authentics is intermingled indistinguishably in the very same room. Silver Knight also paid MMA Authentics’ payroll expenses. Upon information and belief, Michael DiSabato has comingled the accounts of Silver Knight and MMA Authentics.
- 55. The officers and/or directors of Silver Knight control the business operations of MMA Authentics. Specifically, Michael DiSabato controls the operations of both entities.
- 56. No arms-length relationship exists between Silver Knight, Michael DiSabato, and MMA Authentics because MMA Authentics is “owned” by Patricia DiSabato, the wife of the owner of Silver Knight.

57. On information and belief, Michael DiSabato and Silver Knight provided the backing used to obtain all initial financing for MMA Authentics.

58. MMA Authentics is directly paying personal expenses of Michael DiSabato and acting as if they were legitimate business expenses of MMA Authentics. In other words, Michael DiSabato is treating MMA Authentics as his personal bank account.

59. Silver Knight and Michael DiSabato have been found to have committed fraud against Globex.

60. MMA Authentics was created during the pendency of the Underlying Lawsuit and formed with the intent to defraud, hinder, and/or delay Globex as a creditor.

61. Upon information and belief, John Doe Law Firm, John Doe Lawyer, and Patricia DiSabato assisted, encouraged, participated, and/or conspired with in connection with this course of conduct, which was a substantial factor in causing the formation of MMA Authentics as the alter ego of Silver Knight and Michael DiSabato.

62. Patricia DiSabato is the alter ego of Michael DiSabato, and is being utilized as his agent and nominee to be the “paper owner” of MMA Authentics and of other assets of Michael DiSabato, when in reality MMA Authentics is wholly owned and controlled by Michael DiSabato.

63. No arms-length relationship exists between Michael DiSabato and Patricia DiSabato because they are husband and wife.

64. Patricia DiSabato is being utilized as the alter ego of Michael DiSabato with the intent of defrauding, hindering, and/or delaying Globex as a creditor.

65. Upon information and belief, John Doe Law Firm, John Doe Lawyer, and MMA Authentics assisted, encouraged, participated, and/or conspired with in connection with this course of conduct, which was a substantial factor in causing the establishment and utilization of Patricia DiSabato as the alter ego of and Michael DiSabato. There is such a unity of purpose between Silver Knight, Michael DiSabato, Patricia DiSabato, and MMA Authentics such that their separateness has ceased, and holding only Silver Knight and Michael DiSabato liable would result in injustice.

66. Therefore, MMA Authentics, Patricia DiSabato, Michael DiSabato, Silver Knight, John Doe Law Firm, and John Doe Lawyer are jointly and severally liable for the $5.3 million judgment against Silver Knight and Michael DiSabato.

B. Single Business Enterprise.

67. Plaintiff hereby incorporates the foregoing paragraphs as if fully set forth herein.

68. Silver Knight and MMA Authentics have common employees, common offices, centralized accounting, and payment of wages and expenses by Silver Knight for MMA Authentics employees. Services are regularly rendered by employees of one company on behalf of the other. Upon information and belief, there have been undocumented transfers of funds and assets from one company to the other, and there is an unclear allocation of legitimate profits and losses between Silver Knight and MMA Authentics.

69. Upon information and belief, John Doe Law Firm, John Doe Lawyer, Patricia DiSabato, and Michael DiSabato assisted, encouraged, participated, and/or conspired with in connection with this course of conduct, which was a substantial factor in causing the establishment of the single business enterprise. There is such a unity of purpose between Silver Knight and MMA Authentics such that their separateness has ceased, and holding only Silver Knight liable would result in injustice.

70. As such, MMA Authentics and Silver Knight are jointly and severally liable for the $3.2 million judgment against Silver Knight in favor of Globex as described above.

C. Sham to Perpetrate a Fraud and Use for Illegal and/or Improper Purposes.

71. Plaintiff hereby incorporates the foregoing paragraphs as if fully set forth herein.

72. MMA Authentics is being used as a sham to perpetrate a fraud against Globex as a judgment creditor, and MMA Authentics is being utilized for illegal and/or improper purposes. MMA Authentics is being used as a corporate fiction to evade the existing legal obligations of Silver Knight and Michael DiSabato to Globex. MMA Authentics, Patricia DiSabato, Michael DiSabato, and Silver Knight are relying on the corporate fiction of MMA Authentics as a protection of a crime and/or to justify a wrong, and said Defendants have committed actual fraud.

73. Upon information and belief, John Doe Law Firm, John Doe Lawyer, Patricia DiSabato, and Michael DiSabato assisted, encouraged, participated, and/or conspired with in connection with this course of conduct, which was a substantial factor in causing the establishment of the sham to perpetrate a fraud and use of MMA Authentics for illegal and/or improper purposes.

74. MMA Authentics, Patricia DiSabato, Michael DiSabato, Silver Knight, John Doe Law Firm, John Doe Lawyer are jointly and severally liable for the $5.3 million judgment against Silver Knight and Michael DiSabato.

D. Violations of the Uniform Fraudulent Transfer Act.

75. Plaintiff hereby incorporates the foregoing paragraphs as if fully set forth herein.

76. Defendants Michael DiSabato and Silver Knight transferred assets from Silver Knight and Michael DiSabato to Defendants MMA Authentics and Patricia DiSabato with actual intent to hinder, delay, and/or defraud Plaintiff Globex.

77. This transfer of assets from Michael DiSabato and Silver Knight to MMA Authentics and Patricia DiSabato constitutes a transfer to an insider because Michael DiSabato and Patricia DiSabato are husband and wife, and because MMA Authentics is the alter ego of Silver Knight and the two companies are a single business enterprise.

78. Michael DiSabato has retained control of the transferred assets.

79. At the time of the transfer, Michael DiSabato and Silver Knight had been sued by Globex and/or Globex had obtained a judgment against Michael DiSabato and Silver Knight in the amount of $5.3 million.

80. The transfers constituted substantially all of the assets of Michael DiSabato and Silver Knight.

81. Upon information and belief, Michael DiSabato, Patricia DiSabato, John Doe Law Firm, John Doe Lawyer, Jerry Peer, Adams, Babner & Gitlitz, Gryphon Asset Management, Richard Kruse, Melissa Kruse, Steve Miller, and Crabbe, Brown & James assisted, encouraged, participated, and/or conspired with in connection with this course of conduct, which was a substantial factor in causing, creating, concealing, and destroying evidence of the fraudulent transfers.

82. Therefore MMA Authentics, Patricia DiSabato, Michael DiSabato, Silver Knight, John Doe Law Firm, John Doe Lawyer, Jerry Peer, Adams, Babner & Gitlitz, Gryphon Asset Management, Richard Kruse, Melissa Kruse, Steve Miller, and Crabbe, Brown & James are jointly and severally liable for the $5.3 million judgment against Silver Knight and Michael DiSabato.

Huntington National Bank

83. Huntington National Bank has asserted that Silver Knight transferred a security interest in its inventory to Huntington National Bank. Upon information and belief this transfer was made during the pendency of the Underlying Lawsuit with actual intent to defraud, hinder, and/or delay Globex as a creditor. Upon further information and belief, the debts alleged by Huntington National Bank as the basis for its security interest were created with actual or constructive awareness of Huntington National Bank of the pre-existing claims of Globex against Silver Knight, and as such, Huntington was not an innocent, good faith transferee of the security interest and the transfer should be avoided.

84. Any security interest asserted by Huntington National Bank against the assets of Silver Knight to the exclusion of Globex should be declared invalid, null, void, and of no legal effect.

E. Breach of Fiduciary Duties.

85. Plaintiff hereby incorporates the foregoing paragraphs as if fully set forth herein.

86. As a result of its acceptance of appointment as Receiver for Silver Knight, Gryphon Asset Management owed fiduciary duties to Globex as Silver Knight's largest creditor and largest beneficiary of the receivership estate. As a result of their acceptance of appointment as counsel for the Receiver, Steve Miller and the law firm of Crabbe, Brown & James owed fiduciary duties to Globex as Silver Knight's largest creditor and largest beneficiary of the receivership estate.

87. Gryphon Asset Management, Steve Miller, and Crabbe, Brown & James owed Globex the following fiduciary duties:

- (a) The use of skill that an ordinary, capable, and careful person would use in the conduct of their own affairs;
- (b) Duty of loyalty and utmost good faith;
- (c) Duty of candor;
- (d) Duty to disclose all material facts known to the fiduciaries that might affect the rights of the beneficiaries of the receivership estate;
- (e) Duty to refrain from self-dealing, which extends to dealings with fiduciary's agents, employees, and other persons whose interests are closely aligned with those of the fiduciary;
- (f) Duty to act with integrity of the strictest kind;
- (g) Duty of fair and honest dealing;
- (h) Duty of full disclosure;
- (i) Duty to make the assets of the receivership estate productive while at the same time preserving the assets;
- (j) Duty to account to the beneficiaries of the receivership estate for all transactions of the receivership; and
- (k) Duty to properly manage, supervise, and safeguard the assets and funds of the receivership estate.

88. As outlined above, Gryphon Asset Management, Steve Miller, and Crabbe, Brown & James breached these fiduciary duties to Globex.

89. Jerry Peer, Adams, Babner & Gitlitz, Richard Kruse, Melissa Kruse, Patricia DiSabato, Michael DiSabato, and MMA Authentics knowingly participated in and/or induced the foregoing breaches of fiduciary duties by Gryphon Asset Management, Steve Miller, and Crabbe, Brown & James.

90. Therefore Gryphon Asset Management, Richard Kruse, Melissa Kruse, Steve Miller, Crabbe, Brown & James, Patricia DiSabato, Michael DiSabato, MMA Authentics, Jerry Peer, and Adams, Babner & Gitlitz, are jointly and severally liable for the $3.2 million in damages caused to Globex as a result of the foregoing breaches of fiduciary duties.

91. Gryphon Asset Management, Richard Kruse, Melissa Kruse, Steve Miller, Crabbe, Brown & James, Patricia DiSabato, Michael DiSabato, MMA Authentics, Jerry Peer, and Adams, Babner & Gitlitz are subject to disgorgement of profits, fees, and benefits obtained as a result of the foregoing breaches of fiduciary duties to Globex.

92. The harm to Globex resulted from the fraud, malice, and/or gross negligence of the foregoing Defendants, and Gryphon Asset Management, Richard Kruse, Melissa Kruse, Steve Miller, Crabbe, Brown & James, Patricia DiSabato, Michael DiSabato, MMA Authentics, Jerry Peer, and Adams, Babner & Gitlitz are therefore liable to exemplary damages.

93. Furthermore, because the conduct of Gryphon Asset Management, Richard Kruse, Melissa Kruse, Steve Miller, Crabbe, Brown & James, Patricia DiSabato, Michael DiSabato, MMA Authentics, Jerry Peer, and Adams, Babner & Gitlitz involved the knowing and intentional misapplication of fiduciary property, Globex is entitled to exemplary damages without limitation.

G. Negligence.

94. Plaintiff hereby incorporates the foregoing paragraphs as if fully set forth herein.

95. Gryphon Asset Management, Richard Kruse, Melissa Kruse, Steve Miller, Crabbe, Brown & James, Jerry Peer, and Adams, Babner & Gitlitz owed duties to Globex arising from the relationship to, and control over, the receivership estate of which Globex was the largest beneficiary. The negligent acts and/or omissions of Gryphon Asset Management, Richard Kruse, Melissa Kruse, Steve Miller, Crabbe, Brown & James, Jerry Peer, and Adams, Babner & Gitlitz, individually and collectively, breached that duty. Harmed to Globex was proximately caused said Defendants' breach of their duties and Defendants are liable to Globex in an amount within the jurisdictional limits of this Court. Furthermore, because the acts and/or omissions of Defendants constitute gross negligence, Defendants are liable to Globex for exemplary damages.

H. Exemplary Damages.

96. The harm to Globex resulted from the fraud, malice, and/or gross negligence of Patricia DiSabato, Michael DiSabato, MMA Authentics, Silver Knight, Gryphon Asset Management, Richard Kruse, Melissa Kruse, Steve Miller, Crabbe, Brown & James, Jerry Peer, and Adams, Babner & Gitlitz, John Doe Law Firm, and John Doe Lawyer. Said Defendants are therefore liable to Globex for exemplary damages.

97. Furthermore, because the conduct of Gryphon Asset Management, Richard Kruse, Melissa Kruse, Steve Miller, Crabbe, Brown & James, Patricia DiSabato, Michael DiSabato, MMA Authentics, Jerry Peer, and Adams, Babner & Gitlitz involved the knowing and intentional misapplication of fiduciary property, Globex is entitled to exemplary damages against said Defendants without limitation.

VI.
CONDITIONS PRECEDENT

98. All conditions precedent have been performed or have occurred.

VII.
CONCLUSION AND PRAYER

99. Plaintiff hereby incorporates the foregoing paragraphs as if fully set forth herein.

100. For these reasons, Plaintiff Globex asks for judgment and pre-judgment relief against Defendants for the following:

- (a) Actual and compensatory damages as outlined above;
- (b) Disgorgement of benefits and profits;
- (c) Exemplary damages without limitation;
- (d) Avoidance of the fraudulent transfers as outlined above;
- (e) Injunctive relief preventing further disposition of assets pending the conclusion of this litigation;
- (f) The appointment of a receiver to take charge of MMA Authentics until such time as the Judgment is fully satisfied;
- (g) Pre-judgment and post-judgment interest to the full amount allowed by law;
- (h) Attorney's fees;
- (i) Costs of suit; and
- (j) Such other and further relief to which Plaintiff Globex may be entitled at law or in equity.

FINAL JUDGMENT

The Court called this action for trial on March 3, 2009. Plaintiff Globex International, Inc. ("Globex") and Defendants Michael DiSabato and Silver Knight Sales & Marketing, Ltd. ("Silver Knight") appeared in person and through counsel and announced ready for trial. The Court duly empaneled a Jury and proceeded to trial. Upon completion of trial, the Jury returned its verdict in open Court, which is incorporated by reference.

Globex has advised the Court that it elects to recover first on its fraud claims as found by the Jury. Globex has also advised the Court of the existence of an Order Appointing Receiver for Winding Up Affairs, in In re: Dissolution of Silver Knight Sales & Marketing, Ltd., Case No. 09MS 3 185, in the Court of Common Pleas of Franklin County, Ohio. The Court finds the Order Appointing Receiver for Winding Up Affairs does not prevent this Court from entering judgment on the Jury's verdict.

The parties have agreed to submit the issue of attorneys' fees to the Court. The Court takes judicial notice pursuant to Tex. Civ. Prac. & Rem. Code § 38.004 that usual and customary attorneys' fees on Globex's claim for breach of partnership agreement against Silver Knight are in the amount of $500,000, which amount the Court finds to be reasonable.

It is, therefore, ordered that Globex have judgment on its claim for fraud against DiSabato and Silver Knight jointly and severally in the amount of $840,000, together with judgment against DiSabato for exemplary damages on Globex's claim for fraud in the amount of $2,000,000, together with judgment against Silver Knight for exemplary damages on Globex's claim for fraud in the amount of $1,000,000, together with judgment against Silver Knight on Globex's claim for breach of partnership agreement in the amount of $660,000 (that being the excess of the damages found by the jury for breach of partnership agreement above the damages found by the jury for fraud), together with judgment against Silver Knight on Globex's claim for attorneys' fees pursuant to Tex. Civ. Prac. & Rem. Code § 38.001 in the amount of $500,000, together with prejudgment interest against DiSabato and Silver Knight jointly and severally in the amount of $167,971.05, together with additional prejudgment interest against Silver Knight in the amount of $131,973.17, all to bear post-judgment interest at the rate of 0.52% per annum until paid, for all amounts of which process may issue.

It is further ordered that Silver Knight take nothing by its counterclaim against Globex, and that its counterclaim against Globex is dismissed with prejudice.

Court cost are taxed against DiSabato and Silver Knight and in favor of Globex. All relief not expressly granted is denied. This is a final judgment.

VERIFIED COMPLAINT FOR JUDICIAL DISSOLUTION
AND FOR IMMEDIATE APPOINTMENT OF RECEIVER

Now comes Silver Knight Sales & Marketing, Ltd. ("Silver Knight"), by and through its undersigned counsel, pursuant to Ohio Rev. Code §1705.47 and §2735.01 et seq., and for its complaint for judicial dissolution of the corporation, and for the appointment of a receiver to wind up its affairs, alleges and states as follows:

1. Silver Knight is a limited liability company, registered and formed under Ohio law, with its principal office in the City of Columbus, Franklin County, Ohio. See Affidavit of Michael H. DiSabato, attached hereto as "Exhibit A."
2. A list of its members, with addresses and share holdings is attached hereto as "Exhibit B."
3. Silver Knight has incurred a substantial amount of secured and unsecured debt, in excess of its assets, and is therefore insolvent. See Affidavit of Michael H. DiSabato, attached hereto as "Exhibit A."
4. Silver Knight is no longer able to pay its obligations in their regular course, and is therefore insolvent. See Affidavit of Michael H. DiSabato, attached hereto as "Exhibit A."
5. As an insolvent entity, it is no longer practicable to carry on the business of the company in conformity with its articles of organization and operating agreement, pursuant to R.C. 1705.47. See Affidavit of Michael H. DiSabato, attached hereto as "Exhibit A."

FILED
COMMON PLEAS COURT
FRANKLIN CO., OHIO
2009 MAR 25 PM 1:46
CLERK OF COURTS

D8782 - A63

6. This Court has jurisdiction to judicially dissolve the company, and to do all things necessary for the winding up of Silver Knight's affairs in an orderly fashion pursuant to R.C. §1705.47 and §2735.01 et seq.

7. In furtherance of winding up its affairs, and to effect a fair and equitable distribution of its unencumbered assets to its creditors, Silver Knight respectfully requests, pursuant to R.C. §1705.47 and §2735.01 et seq., that the Court order, upon appropriate motion, the appointment of a Receiver, in accordance with the usages of a court in equitable matters, to take possession of, manage and control all of Silver Knight's assets and to otherwise wind up the affairs of Silver Knight, or for any other purpose requested.

8. The appointment of a Receiver is necessary for the equitable and orderly winding up of the affairs of the company. See Affidavit of Michael H. DiSabato, attached hereto as "Exhibit A."

9. In furtherance of winding up Silver Knight's post-dissolution affairs, and to effect a fair and equitable distribution by a receiver of the Silver Knight Assets to its creditors, Silver Knight requests a proof of claims procedure whereby the creditors can formally assert their claims in a uniform manner.

10. Upon approval by the Court, and for the purposes of winding up the affairs of Silver Knight, said proof of claims procedure shall govern the following:

- (a) The presentation of proof of all claims and demands against Silver Knight for the purpose of participating in any distribution of the Silver Knight Assets;
- (b) The fixing of the time within which and the manner in which such proof shall be made and the person to whom such presentation shall be made; and
- (c) The barring from participation in any distribution of the Silver Knight Assets of all persons failing to make and present proofs as required by the order of the Court.

11. In furtherance of winding up its affairs, and to effect a fair and equitable distribution by a receiver to its creditors, Silver Knight respectfully requests that the court order and adjudge with respect to:

D8782 - A64

- (a) The settlement or determination of all claims of every nature by creditors and other parties against the Silver Knight Assets; and
- (b) The making of new parties to the proceedings so far as the Court considers proper for the determination of all matters.

12. In furtherance of winding up its affairs, and to effect a fair and equitable distribution by a receiver of the Silver Knight Assets to its creditors, Silver Knight respectfully requests that the Court order and adjudge with respect to the following:

- (a) The presentation and filing of intermediate and final accounts of any receiver appointed by this Court and hearing on them;
- (b) The allowance, disallowance, or settlement of such accounts; and
- (c) The discharge of Silver Knight's managers, if any, officers and any receiver appointed by this Court from their respective duties and liabilities.

13. In furtherance of winding up its affairs, and to effect a fair and equitable distribution by a receiver of the Silver Knight Assets to its creditors, Silver Knight respectfully requests, that the Court order and adjudge with respect to the allowance and payment of compensation to any receiver appointed in this matter, to the attorney(s), accountant(s), and other professionals of any such receiver and of Silver Knight, or to any person properly rendering services beneficial to Silver Knight, and/or the creditors thereof, pursuant to Local Rule.

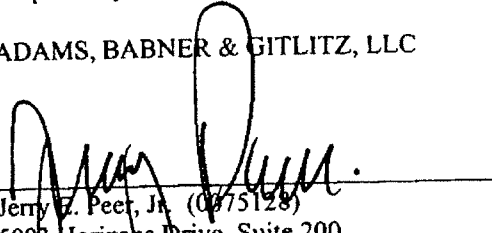

WHEREFORE, in furtherance of winding up its affairs, and to effect a fair and equitable distribution by a receiver of the Silver Knight Assets to its creditors, Silver Knight requests that the Court, pursuant to the authority conferred upon it by R.C. §1705.47, et seq.: (i) judicially dissolve the company as being insolvent and unable to effectively carry on its business; (b) appoint Gryphon Asset Management, LLC, by and through its principal Richard F. Kruse, as Receiver, for the orderly winding up of the company and distribution of its assets amongst creditors, with Steven E. Miller, Esq., of Crabbe, Brown, & James, LLP, 500 South Front Street, Columbus, Ohio 43215, to serve as counsel to the

ORDER APPOINTING RECEIVER FOR WINDING UP AFFAIRS

This _____ day of March, 2009, this cause came on to be heard upon the Complaint of Applicant, Silver Knight Sales & Marketing, Ltd. ("Silver Knight"), Exhibits thereto, and the statements of counsel for the appointment of a Receiver for Silver Knight and other relief, and upon consideration thereof, the Court finds that said limited liability company should be dissolved pursuant to Ohio Rev. Code Sec. 1705.47 and 2735.01 et seq., for the reason that it is not reasonably practical to carry on the business of the company, due to its insolvency and that it cannot offer reasonable security to creditors, and that a Receiver should be appointed for the winding up of the business of the company in an orderly manner.

The Court further finds that the company is currently conducting business within Franklin County, Ohio, that the assets of the company are located in Franklin County, Ohio and that the Court has jurisdiction of the said company.

The Court further finds that the Applicant's request that Gryphon Asset Management, LLC, by and through its principal Richard F. Kruse, be appointed as the Receiver, and Steven E. Miller, Esq., of Crabbe, Brown, & James, LLP, 500 South Front Street, Columbus, Ohio 43215, as its counsel, is reasonable.

It is, therefore, ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED that the property and assets of Silver Knight, be placed in the hands of a Receiver for the protection of creditors, and that Gryphon Asset Management, LLC, by and through its principal Richard F. Kruse, be appointed Receiver in this action for the property of the company of whatever kind or character and wherever situated. Said Receiver shall be empowered to conduct all the business connected with the company for the purposes of winding up its affairs, make collections, pay the debts and expenses out of cash flow, conduct all litigation in reference thereto take whatever action it may deem necessary to protect the assets in the interest of the creditors. The Receiver is authorized to complete all work in progress, including but not be limited to the fulfillment of orders placed by customers of Silver Knight, and otherwise manage and operate the company during its winding-up, with full authority to carry on, manage and operate the company and assets appurtenant thereto in such manner as he may deem advisable.

The Receiver is authorized and ordered to make an inventory of the assets relating to the company, including all personal property and accounts receivable, and shall report the same to the Court and the parties hereto within thirty (30) days of the entry of this Order.

IT IS HEREBY FURTHER ORDERED that all persons having current records or property of any kind or interest therein belonging to the company deliver same on demand to said Receiver.

IT IS HEREBY FURTHER ORDERED that the Receiver be, and he hereby is, authorized to employ for the preservation of the assets of the company and to inventory that same, such help as may, in the option of the Receiver, be necessary and beneficial thereto, including but not limited to legal counsel, and to purchase, contract and pay for such materials, supplies, utilities and services as may be necessary to the preservation of assets and the making of said inventory and to pay, from the funds coming into his hands, as a part of the costs of these proceedings, such salaries, charges and expenses.

IT IS HEREBY FURTHER ORDERED that the Receiver be, and he hereby is, authorized to settle all claims, insurance matters and affairs of a like nature, upon such terms as he, in his discretion, deems most advantageous to the interest of creditors.

IT IS HEREBY FURTHER ORDERED that all creditors, claimants, bodies politic, parties in interest, and all sheriffs, marshals, and other officers, and their respective attorneys, servants, agents, and employees, and all other persons, firms and corporations be, and they hereby are, jointly and severally, enjoined and stayed from commencing or continuing any action at law or suit or proceeding in equity to foreclose any lien or enforce any claim against said company or its property or against the Receiver in any court, or from taking any action whatsoever to collect its debt except through the procedures implemented by the Receiver. All such entities are further stayed from executing or issuing or causing the execution or issuance out of any Court of any writ, process, summons, attachment, subpoena, replevin, execution, or other process for the purpose of impounding or taking possession of or interfering with, or enforcing any claim or lien upon any property owned by or in the possession of the said Receiver, and from doing any act or thing whatsoever to interfere with the Receiver in the discharge of his duties in this proceeding with the exclusive jurisdiction of this Court over said properties and said Receiver.

IT IS HEREBY FURTHER ORDERED that the Receiver notify all known creditors of the company of the receivership/liquidating trustee herein and said creditors are ORDERED to file sworn claims within thirty (30) days of the notice thereof or else be forever barred from asserting the same.

IT IS HEREBY FURTHER ORDERED that the Receiver shall employ Steven E. Miller, Esq., of Crabbe , Brown, & James, LLP, 500 South Front Street, Columbus, Ohio 43215, as its counsel and it and its counsel shall be compensated for their efforts. The Receiver and counsel shall be entitled to receive compensation on a monthly basis, subject to prior approval by the Court, in accordance with Local Rule 93.09.

IT IS HEREBY FURTHER ORDERED that the Receiver shall execute and deposit with the Clerk of Courts, a bond in the amount of $1.00, which shall remain on deposit and in effect until further order of this Court. This Order shall be in full force and effect as of the date of its journalization with the Clerk of this Court.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

LOBEX INTERNATIONAL, INC.'S SWORN NOTICE AND PROOF OF CLAIM

COMES NOW, Globex International, Inc. ("Globex"), pursuant to this Court's order of March 20, 2009, and files this Sworn Notice and Proof of Claim against Silver Knight Sales & Marketing, Ltd.

1. Globex hereby files its sworn claim against Silver Knight in the amount of $3,239,944.22.

2. This claim and debt arose out of Silver Knight Sales & Marketing, Ltd.'s ("Silver Knight") breach of its partnership agreement with Globex, its breach of its fiduciary duties to Globex; out of fraud committed by Silver Knight against Globex and out of Michael H. DiSabato's ("DiSabato"), president of Silver Knight, knowing participation in Silver Knight's breach of its fiduciary duties and fraud against Globex.

3. All of these claims were tried to a seven-person jury which returned a unanimous verdict against Silver Knight and DiSabato on March 10, 2009, which verdict was entered as a final judgment, dated May 1, 2009 (a copy of which is attached as Exhibit A hereto), against Silver Knight in Case No. 3:05-cv-1814N, styled as Globex International, Inc. v. Michael DiSabato and Silver Knight Sales & Marketing, Ltd., in the United States District Court for the Northern District of Texas, Dallas Division.

Civil Action No. 3:05-CV-1814-N

FINAL JUDGMENT

The Court called this action for trial on March 3, 2009. Plaintiff Globex International, Inc. ("Globex") and Defendants Michael DiSabato and Silver Knight Sales & Marketing, Ltd. ("Silver Knight") appeared in person and through counsel and announced ready for trial. The Court duly empaneled a Jury and proceeded to trial. Upon completion of trial, the Jury returned its verdict in open Court, which is incorporated by reference.

Globex has advised the Court that it elects to recover first on its fraud claims as found by the Jury. Globex has also advised the Court of the existence of an Order Appointing Receiver for Winding Up Affairs, in In re: Dissolution of Silver Knight Sales & Marketing, Ltd., Case No. 09MS 3 185, in the Court of Common Pleas of Franklin County, Ohio. The Court finds the Order Appointing Receiver for Winding Up Affairs does not prevent this Court from entering judgment on the Jury's verdict.

The parties have agreed to submit the issue of attorneys' fees to the Court. The Court takes judicial notice pursuant to Tex. Civ. Prac. & Rem. Code § 38.004 that usual and customary attorneys' fees on Globex's claim for breach of partnership agreement against Silver Knight are in the amount of $500,000, which amount the Court finds to be reasonable.

It is, therefore, ordered that Globex have judgment on its claim for fraud against DiSabato and Silver Knight jointly and severally in the amount of $840,000, together with judgment against DiSabato for exemplary damages on Globex's claim for fraud in the amount of $2,000,000, together with judgment against Silver Knight for exemplary damages on Globex's claim for fraud in the amount of $1,000,000, together with judgment against Silver Knight on Globex's claim for breach of partnership agreement in the amount of $660,000 (that being the excess of the damages found by the jury for breach of partnership agreement above the damages found by the jury for fraud), together with judgment against Silver Knight on Globex's claim for attorneys' fees pursuant to Tex. Civ. Prac. & Rem. Code § 38.001 in the amount of $500,000, together with prejudgment interest against DiSabato and Silver Knight jointly and severally in the amount of $167,971.05, together with additional prejudgment interest against Silver Knight in the amount of $131,973.17, all to bear post-judgment interest at the rate of 0.52% per annum until paid, for all amounts of which process may issue.

It is further ordered that Silver Knight take nothing by its counterclaim against Globex, and that its counterclaim against Globex is dismissed with prejudice.

Court cost are taxed against DiSabato and Silver Knight and in favor of Globex. All relief not expressly granted is denied. This is a final judgment.

Signed May 1, 2009.

Exhibit 6

IN THE COURT OF COMMON PLEAS, FRANKLIN COUNTY, OHIO

IN RE:

DISSOLUTION OF SILVER KNIGHT
SALES & MARKETING, LTD.

CASE NO.: 09 MS 3 185

JUDGE HOGAN

FILED
COMMON PLEAS COURT
FRANKLIN CO. OHIO
2009 JUN 24 PM 2:20
CLERK OF COURTS

FIRST REPORT OF RECEIVER

Now comes Gryphon Asset Management, LLC (herein "Receiver") by and through counsel and hereby submits its First Report of Receiver in order to provide notice to the Court and all interested parties as to the current developments to date of the Receivership Estate along with the Receiver's recommendation for liquidation of the remaining assets of Silver Knight Sales & Marketing, Ltd. ("Silver Knight").

I. BACKGROUND AND RECEIVER SALES

On March 20, 2009, this Court issued an Order Appointing Receiver for Winding up the Affairs of Silver Knight. Thereafter, on April 21, 2009, the Receiver filed an inventory for Silver Knight based on a spot check of the inventory. Silver Knight is a company that specializes in the sale of licensed collegiate products to retail distributors throughout the United States. The remaining inventory of Silver Knight is its largest asset and is stored in a warehouse located on Philippi Road, on the west side of Columbus, Ohio. To date, the Receiver has utilized the former sales staff of Silver Knight in order to market the remaining product to former customers of Silver Knight. As of the date of this report, the Receiver has received and accepted orders which total $25,047.32. The Receiver also has orders that are currently being filled which total approximately $20,000.00.

II. THE WAREHOUSE

As previously stated, the inventory of Silver Knight is located in a warehouse located on Phillipi Road on the west side of Columbus. Silver Knight shares the warehouse space with other companies and the inventory is situated such that the goods could potentially be accessed by others unrelated to Silver Knight's business. As a result, the Receiver is in the process of removing all inventory of Silver Knight and placing it in a different warehouse where only the Receiver has access to the inventory. The Receiver deems that this action is necessary both for security reasons and in order to prepare a full and complete inventory of all remaining inventory for the proposed liquidation described below.

III. PROPOSED LIQUIDATION

The Receiver does not believe that the previous attempts by the Silver Knight staff to sell the remaining inventory to its customers is yielding meaningful sales at a price point and on the time frame which is in the best interest of the receivership estate. Therefore, the Receiver is currently in the process of determining the best course of action for liquidating the remaining inventory by way of on-line auction, live auction, bulk sale to individual retailer(s) or otherwise. Upon obtaining the final inventory described in Section II above, the Receiver will be in a better position to recommend the direction for the liquidation and will file a motion with the court for consent to proceed accordingly.

IV. THE OHIO STATE UNIVERSITY LITIGATION

Meaningful settlement discussions have taken place by and between the Receivership on behalf of Silver Knight and The Ohio State University with an aim towards finally resolving the litigation pending in the Ohio Court of Claims, Case No. 2008-10145, in the case styled Silver Knight Sales & Marketing Ltd. v. The Ohio State University. The Receiver anticipates that it will be making a recommendation to the court via motion to resolve that claim in its entirety within the next thirty (30) days.

V. ACCOUNTS RECEIVABLE

As of this First Report, the receivership estate has collected the amount of $29,784.52 as set forth in Exhibit A attached hereto.

VI. PROOF OF CLAIMS

The Receiver has received proof of claims from nine (9) creditors of Silver Knight. These claims total over $4 Million Dollars. Of the claims submitted, Huntington National Bank has submitted a claim secured by the inventory and other assets owned by Silver Knight, tangible and intangible, totaling $498,487.53. See Exhibit B attached hereto.

IN RE:

CLERK OF COURTS

DISSOLUTION OF SILVER KNIGHT
SALES & MARKETING, LTD.

CASE NO.: 09 MS 3 185
JUDGE LAUREL BEATTY

INVENTORY OF SILVER KNIGHT SALES & MARKETING, LTD. FILED
BY THE COURT APPOINTED RECEIVER, GRYPHON ASSET MANAGEMENT, LLC

Now comes Gryphon Asset Management, LLC, the Court appointed Receiver herein, by and through its principle, Richard S. Kruse (the "Receiver"), and pursuant to the Order Appointing Receiver for Winding Up Affairs filed in this matter in March 20, 2009 (the "Order"), and hereby submits the inventory and accounts receivable of Silver Knight Sales & Marketing, Ltd. ("Silver Knight").

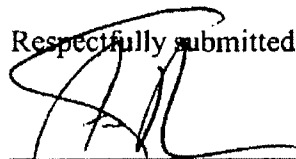

The inventory of Silver Knight is described in Exhibit A, attached hereto and incorporated herein. The Receiver has conducted a spot check of the inventory of Silver Knight, which is located in a warehouse on the west side of Columbus. The spot check indicated that a significant portion of the inventory set forth in the attached Exhibit A is accurate; however, the Receiver has found that there may be some discrepancies between the information reported in Exhibit A and the inventory located during the spot check. Therefore, the Receiver believes that although it may ultimately be deemed to be in the best interest of the Receivership Estate to conduct an full inventory, the Receivership Estate does not have any funds available to it to do so at this time. It is the position of the Receiver herein that once additional resources become available to the Receivership Estate, then it will later be determined whether the costs of performing an actual inventory are justified.

Also attached hereto as Exhibit B is the Report of the Accounts Receivables of Silver Knight.

Finally, it is the Receiver's intention to file an updated inventory and appraisal in accordance with Local Rule 93.04.

Respectfully submitted,
